Veteran Political Leader of New York Thinks His Career Has Not Been Worth While-Wants to Live Five Years More.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, July 19.—Senator Thomas C. Platt, victor in countless hard-fought political battles, reputed wealthy among a thousand friends, head of a great corporation and in better health than for several years, says that his life has not been worth while and has been in some sense failure

"Seventy-two years old-a great many days and months and years some of them fruitful, some barren, but none of them worth the while-

"No, it has not been worth while. It has been in some sense a failure. It could have been so much better-or, at least, so different from what it is."

These were the words spoken by Senator Platt as he stood on the plazza of his home. Tiega Lodge, in the Skunnemunk Mountains, near Highland Mills., N. Y., and looked out over twenty miles of blue sky and green woods. No shade of indifference was in the old man's eyes; his voice was firm and had in it that ring of hope and decision that one hears in men half his age—men who are going up the hill of life, not coming down.

Mr. Platt had been up early in the morning with a dozen guests who had spent Saturday, the Senator's birthday, at his home.

WOULD DO MUCH DIFFERENCELY. These were the words spoken by Senator

WOULD DO MUCH DIFFERENTLY. "No," he repeated, "I don't think it has been worth while. If I had it to do over been worth while. If I had it to do over again I should model my political life along other lines."

"Would you have the years come back for another chance?" he was asked.

"No," was the reply. "I would not; but I would do much differently."

"Why? How differently."

"I should rather not say," replied the Senator. "It would lead to developments. I do not wish anything to develop from the statement that the years have not been worth the battle or that I would live out a different political policy from the one I have so long pursued."

"Yet you have been successful?"

"Perhaps," was the answer. "I have some dear old friends."

Then the Senator changed the subject.

"It is a trifle too serious a one for such a beautiful day," he explained.

"FIVE YEARS MORE OF LIFE."

"FIVE YEARS MORE OF LIFE." Two years ago, when Mr. Platt was 76

he said he would not join the Hundred-Year Club.

"Five years more will satisfy me." he said on that occasion. "That is enough."

"I do." he rep.ied.
"Then you only wish for three more years?" years?"

PINE BLUFF WITHOUT WATER. Boiler at Plant Explodes-Rain

Brings Slight Relief. REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Pine Bluff, Ark., July 19.-Pine Bluff has been in a very precarious condition since yesterday afternoon, the boiler at the light and water company's plant having explod-ed, remering the company without power. The company furnishes all the water used in the city, and there are no facili-ties for fighting fires should any break out. A majority of the residences are without electric lights, and there are no lights on the streets.

But for a rain to-day, during which many citizens caught sufficient water to serve for a brief interval, the water situation would be distressing.

-Prederick Demke yesterday filed an application for an injunction in the Clayton Circuit Court against Landhorst, Vinthorst, Biumenthai and Shepkin, whose first names were not given in petition, alleging that they were about to divert a natural water course in the block bounded by Diamond, Switzer, Church and Nellie avenues, thereby causing some posts that be his planted for a barbed wire fence to be undermined. In addition to the prayer he asks for $1.50 damages.

ROBS LIFE

Rheumatism does more than any other discase to rob life of pleasure and comfort. It is so painful and far-reaching in its effects on the system that those afflicted with it find themselves utterly unable to enjoy bodily comfort or any of the pleasures of life. Some are bound hand and foot and suffer constantly with excruciating pains, swollen, stiff joints and muscles, and often distorted, crooked limbs, while others have intervals of freedom, during which they live in constant fear and dread of the next settack, when, at the least exposure to damp weather, or alight irregularity of any kind, the disease will return
